Approval of minutes: Stacey Katsichtis, Tara Morin

Chocolates:

- Profits estimated to be $4500-$5000
- 9 People have yet to return boxes
- Prizes will cost approximately $398
- Marie Claude was very easy to deal with
- Timing for fundraiser was good
- Coffee was difficult to sell
- Grade 6 sold the least-should they be included in the pizza?
- Should prizes go to the whole family?
- Globetrotter tickets should go to the whole family (i.e. all 4 to one family)
- Grade 6: If they have a younger sibling, should they split the profit with Beechwood or not?
- Grade 6 will go into the draw for prizes and will receive money for their trip
- Decided that Grade 6 does not have to split with Beechwood, they will receive the full amount
- Perhaps next year will not do 1 box per family

Kindergarten Orientation

- Will we be giving away spirit shirts to the new kindergarten class?
- Robin was already contacted to put in another Beechwood apparel order
- Profits will be used to purchase more t-shirts
- We would like to continue to give the new kids free spirit shirts
- There is money left in the budget for it
- Orientation to take place May 20th, 2016
- We will provide BBQ invite with free hotdog again

Miscellaneous:

- Buddy Benches and Grade 6 Bench-Shipping prices were extreme
- We will have $2400 left over in our budget
- Funds for field trip to be used for in school activities -$10 per child
